The Governor of Virginia and Mrs. William Hodges Mann are returning to the Commonwealth this afternoon, after a short visit to Norfolk. Governor Mann has recently returned from New York, where he spent several days.

D. A. R. Luncheon.
All women attending the luncheon to be today at the Commonwealth Club by the Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, are asked to be at the club promptly at half-past 12 o'clock, at which time an informal reception will be tendered Mrs. John Miller Horton just previous to the luncheon.

The luncheon will take place at 1 o'clock, and is an event of much social interest throughout the State.

Goodman-Traylor.
Miss Mabel Traylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Traylor, of Winterport, was married to John W. Goodman, of Cumberland County, on Wednesday afternoon, February 19, at 3 o'clock.

The ceremony took place at Centenary Methodist Church, and the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gresham, officiated. Decorations were in evergreens and roses, and a beautiful wedding march was played by Mrs. E. P. Smith as a professional. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown cloth and carried a bouquet of carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Sadie Winckler, a cousin of the bride, wore a gown of heliotrope crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. W. Edward Clark was the groom's best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Fannie Vaden and Miss Emma Cox, and their bridesmaids were Misses Lawrence Clark and William Traylor.

A luncheon was given at the home of the bride's parents immediately before the ceremony at the church, the guests including the bride party and the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman left later in the afternoon for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home at Winterport.

Opening Reception.
The Hotel Richmond has issued invitations for a reception to be given this afternoon at the hotel from 3 to 5 o'clock. This affair will mark the formal opening of the Richmond to the public, and will be a very brilliant and interesting event. Cards are also out for a dinner to be given at the hotel, followed later in the evening by a cotillion. The dinner and cotillion will be given this evening at 8 o'clock.

Of Interest Here.
The Baltimore Sun of recent issue contains the following of interest in Richmond:

"Mrs. George K. Stiles, formerly Miss Beatrice Clarke, and one of the beauties of Baltimore, accompanied by her husband and four children, have arrived in New York after a four years' residence in the south of France.

"Mrs. Stiles will spend a few days in Baltimore before going to Norfolk, where they will eventually make their home."

"Mrs. Stiles is known to fame as the author of 'The Dragon,' lately published by Harpers. After seeing his family safely settled in Norfolk he plans to go to Cuba to secure material for a new book that is now under way."

For Mrs. Dashiell.
Mrs. R. Dashiell is spending some time with friends at Blacksburg, and is just now the guest of Mrs. Emma St. Verby at her home in that place. Mrs. William M. Lybrook gave a dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Dashiell and R. C. Stiles, the guests invited being Professor and Mrs. Arnold, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Hudson, Mrs. Wirt Dunlap, Mrs. J. B. Tuttle, Mrs. R. P. Fitchard. Later in the evening Dr. and Mrs. Hudson gave a reception in honor of Mrs. Dashiell about seventy-five guests being present. Those in the receiving line were Mrs. J. E. Williams, Mrs. William Lybrook and Miss Ethel Lay.

Old Dominion Chapter Meeting.
All members of the Old Dominion Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, are requested to assemble in the rotunda of the State Capitol this morning at 11 o'clock for the purpose of placing a wreath of roses on the statue of George Washington. A full attendance is desired.

Signers to Meet.
The descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Jefferson. All members of the organization are invited. This society was organized July 4, 1907, at James-town Exposition. The board of governors is composed of the officers and one member from each of the thirteen original States, besides several others at large. Annual reunions of the members are held with headquarters at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, since 1908. It is hoped that the meeting here will be the means of arousing a new interest in the objects of the associations, and that substantial increase in the membership from this city and the State of Virginia will result. Any blood descendant, male or female, of a signer of the Declaration of Independence is eligible to membership, and all such persons who may be descended from the signers of the Declaration from Virginia are most cordially invited to make application for membership at 4 o'clock at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Party at Mrs. Witte's.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witte was the scene of a pretty party last Monday afternoon, when the hostess, Percy Witte, entertained his friends in honor of his birthday. The house was decorated with hearts and flowers. Those present were: Misses Margaret Wright, Thelma Leitch, Genevieve Rye, Ruth Armstrong, Margaret Powers, Frances Cowardin, Genevieve Wright, Masters Percy Witte, Charles Armstrong, William Wright, Forrest Cubbon, Allan Powers, Reynolds Cowardin and Horatio Yarbrough.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Mary Butler, of "Poplar Grove," is spending some time with friends in Washington.

Mrs. Ryland Gwathmey, of Louisiana, is in Richmond for a short stay here with relatives.

Morson Keith, of the University of Virginia, is the guest of his father, Judge James Keith, on Cathedral Place.

Mrs. William A. Mahagan, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. William Dodson, in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woodward, of Staunton, are in Richmond for a few days.

Miss Virginia Dance, of Danville, is at the home of Mrs. W. F. Dance, at her home, 1034 Park Avenue.

Mrs. A. G. Waters and Mrs. F. D. Willis have returned to Newport News, after a short stay here.

Miss Elsie Whitlock, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Michaels, here this winter, left yesterday for her home in Powhatan County.

Miss Blanche Fore has returned to her home on West Grace Street, after a visit to Miss Evelyn Orchard, in Boston.

Miss Marion Rountree, of Williston, S. C., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Boyce D. Booker, at 3 East Franklin Street.

Miss Roberta Ellerson has gone to Baltimore, where she is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Armstrong Thomas.

Dr. Stuart McGuire is visiting Guy Davis at his home in Norfolk for a few days.

Mrs. Jerome F. Blome, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Robert C. Craig, at her home in this city.

Miss Bessie Turner has returned to Norwood, after a visit to Washington and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Hull, of Hampton, have been spending several days with friends here.

Mrs. Emma S. Tyree, of 1317 Floyd Avenue, who was operated on last Monday at the St. Elizabeth Hospital, is slowly improving.

Miss Hazel Faulconer and Miss Ethel White, of Norfolk, left yesterday to spend the week-end in Washington, as the guests of Mrs. Borde.

ELKS WILL BUILD HOME.

Salisbury Lodge Plans to Erect Modern Club House.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Salisbury, N. C., February 21.—The Elks of Salisbury will erect a building of their own. A lot has been secured in the business section of the city, and steps are being taken toward a building which is to be modern in all respects as a club house with dormitories, etc.

The officers of the First Presbyterian Church of Salisbury have decided to erect a new manse for the pastor at this place. Ample ground has been reserved by the congregation, and the building will be erected at an early date. It will be modern in all its appointments.

Captain J. R. Nicholas, of this city, who has been in the Stokes-Whitehead Sanatorium here for seven weeks, having undergone a critical operation, is of danger, and soon will be able to leave the hospital.

IN HONOR OF C. L. BAYLIS.

Banquet Tendered by Business Men of Fayetteville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fayetteville, N. C., February 21.—Charles L. Baylis, "the Mule King of the South," was the guest of honor at a banquet given at the Hotel La Fayetteville in recognition of the part that he is playing in the business expansion of Fayetteville.

The guests numbered about 100, and included some two score stock dealers from other cities, one of them coming from as far as St. Louis to attend the dinner. This was H. D. Timberlake, freight traffic manager of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

There has been a reason for this. Though it is not generally known outside of court circles and diplomatic chancelleries, it was pointed out by none of the guests of the party that he is playing in the business expansion of Fayetteville.

WILL BE EXAMINED
AS TO HIS SANITYJ. B. Stephenson, of Amherst, Taken to Jail in Lynchburg.

CONVENIENCE OF ALIENISTS

Bridge Foreman on C. & O.,
Missing Since Monday, Found
Drowned in Canal.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., February 21.—J. B. Stephenson, the Amherst Court-house man who is charged with shooting A. D. Brown in that place last fall, was brought to the Lynchburg Jail this morning by Sheriff R. H. Drummond, of Amherst County, in order that the alienists, Dr. Fridley and Dr. King, may examine him as to his sanity more conveniently than they could do so if he were left at the Amherst jail.

When the case was called for trial in the Circuit Court at Amherst, it was referred to the alienists, and the people of the case depends upon their report. Should the alienists find Stephenson insane, he will be sent to the criminal insane ward at the Marion hospital, but if they report that his mind is sound, the case will then be fixed for trial. It is not thought Stephenson will be taken back to Amherst County unless it be put him on trial.

W. A. Moss, aged about forty years, a bridge foreman on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, who lived at Tyree-anna, several miles east of Lynchburg, was found drowned to-day at noon in the canal in the lower basin. He had been missing since Monday afternoon, and the drowning is thought to have been accidental.

The water was drained from the canal this morning, and the body was found near Hurt's Mill; the man's watch having stopped at 4:50 o'clock.

Moss leaves a wife and four small children. The body was removed to Duguid's undertaking establishment, and a funeral will be given at a later date.

A large number of members of the Holy Cross Council, Knights of Columbus, of this city, expected to go to Roanoke Sunday to participate in the conferring of the degrees of the order upon a number of candidates, several of whom are Lynchburg people. The Roanoke council is making elaborate arrangements for the occasion, and the officers and members of the local council are anticipating a large delegation from this city and an enjoyable stay in the Magic City.

Separate Primary.
The Democratic Committee to-day decided that the primary for the nomination of candidates for city offices is preferable to nominating these officers in the primary called by the city council for August 5, and they each held over due notes of his for amounts from $50,000 to $100,000.

Mme. von Koenigswarter declined to appear at the hearing, and her husband refused to meet them, his own financial affairs having become in the meanwhile heavily involved. So far as a lady in waiting, while the appeal to the Bankruptcy Court, with liabilities of $600,000, and to assign the liquidation and disposal of which he had held for so many years.

It is only fair to the Jewish banking house of Koenigswarter of Austria to state that, although they bear the same name, they are in no sense of the word related to the family of the Berlin Baron Koenigswarter.

GRAND JURY FINDS MANY TRUE BILLS

Returns Thirty-Five Indictments for Violation of State Banking Laws.

Augusta, Ga., February 21.—Thirty-five indictments charging violation of State banking laws, forgery and embezzlement were returned here to-day by the Richmond County grand jury, which for the past three weeks have been investigating the affairs of the Citizens' Trust Company, of Augusta, involving approximately $100,000, protected by assets.

Official of the institution indicted include B. Sherwood Dunn, New York; D. H. Willard, Philadelphia, and several well-known local men.

Dunn, formerly a vice-president of the Citizens' Trust Company, was indicted on two counts charging violation of banking laws. Willard is charged in the indictment with forgery and embezzlement.

W. B. Face, Augusta, president of the company, was indicted on nine counts charging violation of banking laws, while M. C. Dowling, a vice-president and cashier, is charged with similar violations and embezzlement.
